Q Will the apprentice referenced in the CEO's report be paid?

A The CEO confirmed that the apprentice would be paid for 30 hours each week for one year at the national rate for apprentices of £3.90 per hour from April 2019. Before the Trustees confirmed their approval of this appointment, they considered the full cost/benefit analysis that had been produced that took into account the time we would take in training the apprentice, their holiday entitlement and the net benefit they would provide the Charity.
