Description of Activity:

SingAbout is a social singing activity run by Independent Arts. It can help to improve your memory, breathing, speech, movement and confidence. It is a great opportunity to meet new people and everyone is welcome.

A variety of music is included including traditional rounds and rhymes, songs from shows and music hall favourites as well as popular music and rock and roll.

Minibus transport is available, subject to demand and location.

Please register your interest by calling 522205 or email members@iwsb.org.uk

Please note: All activities are subject to demand and availability of volunteers for driving and supporting as sighted escort guides.
