Description of Activity:

The Somerset Hotel enjoys an enviable sea-front promenade location in the heart of Llandudno, North Wales. You can relax in the sea-front garden or take a stroll to the town centre along the flat promenade. You'll also find the pier (the longest in Wales) and a wide variety of shops and cafes.

There are also optional day trips available from just £10 per person

Please note: All activities are subject to demand and availability of volunteers for supporting as sighted escort guides. Personal care is not included in the role of a sighted guide. If personal care is required then you will need to arrange to bring a carer with you. If any activity is oversubscribed, applications will be drawn from a hat. Payment will need to be made in full by the end of May 2019.
